

Uni High Alumni Association Website Terms of Use

The information provided on the University of Illinois Laboratory High School Alumni Association (a.k.a. Uni High Alumni Association) website is generally believed to be accurate, but nonetheless, you use the information provided at your own risk. We make no warranties expressed or implied about the accuracy of the data on the Uni High Alumni Association website.

Users who are not paid up members of the Uni High Alumni Association will not be granted access to special features of this site, including the Alumni Directory. All members of the Uni High Alumni Association must be at least 16 years of age.

If you choose to use the Uni High Alumni Association's Alumni Directory you agree to use the information provided for your personal, non-commercial use only. You agree not to harvest and/or sell information in the Alumni Directory to third parties. You agree not to spam people who are listed in the the directory. The Uni High Alumni Association reserves the right to revoke access to the Alumni Directory or other portions of this site if, in its sole discretion, it determines that you are using the site in a way that is inappropriate or it otherwise determines that it is in the best interest of the Uni High Alumni Association to deny you access to the site.

By using this site you also agree to the terms of our privacy policy.

These terms of use may be subject to change. The most current terms of use will always be posted here. If you have an account on our site, we will notify you of changes to the terms of use via email.

The Uni High Alumni Association is not responsible for content that is linked to this site and/or social media/other comments posted by individual users on this site.